

Proshred Invoices

There was no attorney present to answer questions regarding the Proshred invoices.

Alderman Patton voiced concerns regarding the lawsuit and the city shredding documents and if Proshred was still shredding.

Mayor Jones stated the invoices were a part of the litigation.

Mayor Jones stated the audit is coming to an end and should be completed shortly.

Alderman Wilson asked if the audit was extended and did the mayor receive approval. Alderman Wilson expressed displeasure at the lack of an attorney's attendance.

Mayor Jones stated that an attorney will be present at the next meeting, and they may discuss the items.

Alderman Wilson: "I have an issue and want to speak to an attorney to speak about the amended lawsuit. We only agreed as a council that there would be no shedding in the city. I am concerned about lawsuits being amended didn't and we didn't agree to that.

Mayor Jones: "There was no amended lawsuit".

Clerk Figgs: "Yes, the lawsuit was amended."

Mayor Jones: "Clerk Figgs we cannot discuss a lawsuit and pending litigation in this meeting"

Clerk Figgs: "I will send the council the amended lawsuit via email."
