Breast cancer is the most common cancer in women worldwide and the second most common cancer overall. It is the leading cause of cancer death in American women, surpassing lung cancer for the first time in recent years. According to the American Cancer Society, there are currently more than 3.8 million breast cancer survivors in the United States, including women still being treated and those who have completed treatment. It is with devotion and love, Mayor Thaddeus Jones and the City Council looks forward to honoring 50 Breast Cancer Warriors in the Calumet City community.
